LORD SALISBURY.

He Will Accept the Fremismbly of England on Conditions—The Libert London Must Not Oppose the Government.

Loxnox, June 22.—The queen does not hesitate to use her potent influence in dealing with crices like the present, and it is an accepted fact, likewise, that her sympathics are strongly on the side of Salisbury and the unionists. If, therefore, she insists upon the Roseberg ministry continuing to administer the government until the general election is held, they have practically no option and parliament will be dissolved at succe. The most interesting feature of the situation Monday was the fact that the grand old man, who is the real leader of the liberal party, is again in Downing street.
